Daylight Saving

During 1933 daylight saving schedules were in effect in some form in the following states or localities:

1. Conn. Certain Cities only
2. Del. " " "
3. Ill. " " "
4. Ind. " " "
5. Maine " " "
6. Md. Baltimore only
7. Mass. entire State
8. Mich. (see explanation)
9. Minn. Certain Cities only
10. N. H. (see explanation)
11. N. J. Certain Cities only
12. N. Y. " " "
13. N. D. (see explanation)
14. Ohio " " "
15. Penn. Certain Cities only
16. R. I. entire State
17. Vt. City of Bennington
18. W. Va. Certain Cities only
19. Wis. " " "
20. Canada " " "

(1) Conn.—State law requires public clocks to show only standard time but all principal cities and towns observe daylight saving schedule. (2) Del.—daylight saving in force in Wilmington only. (3) Ill. daylight saving observed in Chicago and Evanston and suburbs. (4) Ind.—Important industrial localities such as Crown Point, E. Chicago, Fort Wayne, Garrett, Gary, Hammond, La Porte and Mich. City use daylight saving time. (5) Maine—Illegal for public clocks to use other than standard time; but Auburn, Bangor, Biddeford, Brunswick, Lewiston, Orchard Beach, Saco, Sanford, Spring Vale and Waterville use daylight schedule. (6) Md.—Baltimore only on daylight time. (7) Mass.—Daylight schedule by state law commences last Sunday in April, ends last Sunday in Sept. (8) Mich.—Many cities secure results of daylight saving by using Eastern Stand. time. (9) Minn.—In Duluth and Minneapolis, many private firms observe d. s. time. (10) N. H.—State law prohibits d. s. observance. Manchester and Nashua start work one hour earlier in summer. (11) N. J.—All Metropolitan cities and most others on d. s. schedule. (12) N. Y.—Metropolitan area and most large cities and towns observe d. s. time. (13) N. D.—State law fixes Central std. time instead of Mountain time used formerly. (14) Ohio—State operates on Eastern std. time instead of Central time. (15) Penn.—Phil. Pitts., Allentown, Ambridge, Beth, Braddock, Chester, Coatsville, Easton, McKeesport, Norristown and W. Chester on d. s. time. (16) R. I.—Entire state on d. s. time. (17) Vt.—City of Bennington uses d. s. (18) W. Va.—Wheeling on d. s. time. (19) Wis.—State law prohibits public observance but private firms in Milwaukee use d. s. time. (20) Canada—d. s. time used by many towns and cities in Ontario and Quebec Provinces and in Regina, Sask.

Mary Russell, Marian Credner & Elsie
Miller at the Credner apt & we started for Bay Shore via South State Parkway
We made the 3 o'clock ferry boat &
the start of a good No. Easter -
We were blessed going against wind
& rain to Bayville from Fair Harbor -
We had to stay in the house
as the storm got worse & worse
The ocean went over the island into the bay & was up to the top
door steps at the front & rear doors of Mary's house - In middle of night wind shifted & came strong from Southwest - Off Ashbury Park
the Marco Carlini Ward Line bus
& lost about 200 cipes -

September 1934

Sun. 9 Clear & warm

At Fire Island

Got up about 10 o'clock this morning & Shingle Miller & I went for a fine dip in the ocean before breakfast. It is a beautiful day & big contrast with yesterday & last night. We spent all afternoon on the beach & in the water. Last night's storm left a lot of walk around the house & ruined Mary's garden. It swept the beach clean & damaged sand dunes. On the way to the ferry boat Shingle started to wade & carry Marion Cullen across a washout & went into quicksand up to his waist. He pulled him out & continued. At Bay Shore we stopped at the Meaders & then drove back to town & got back about 1:30.

Couple to Live in Newark.

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

MONTCLAIR, N. J., Nov. 20.—Miss Elizabeth Olds Pond, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Francis Jones Pond, was married to Frederick Suydam Polhemus, son of Mrs. James Suydam Polhemus of Newark and the late Mr. Polhemus, yesterday afternoon at the home of her parents in Upper Montclair. Owing to the recent death of the bridegroom's father only members of the two families were present. The Rev. Dr. Henry Evertson Cobb, senior pastor of the West End Collegiate Church of New York, a cousin of the bridegroom, performed the ceremony and was assisted by the Rev. Dr. George C. Vincent of Montclair.

The bride, who was escorted by her father, wore a princess gown of white satin combined with point lace and a tulle veil arranged with a cap of lace. She wore an antique pearl brooch that had been worn by her mother and grandmother at their marriages, and carried gardenias and lilies of the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Polhemus will go to Bermuda on their wedding trip, and, on their return, will live at 69 Washington Street, Newark.

The forebears of both the bride and bridegroom figured prominently in the early history of this country. On the maternal side, Mrs. Polhemus is descended from Benjamin Olds of Sheffield, Conn., who served in the Revolutionary War, and on the paternal side she numbers among her ancestors Lieutenant William Avery, a deputy to the General Court of Massachusetts in 1669 and one of the first physicians of Dedham; Lieutenant Francis Peabody, who, with his father, John Peabody, landed at Plymouth in 1635 from the ship Planter, and Lieutenant Henry Adams of Medway, Mass., a son of Henry Adams of Braintree, progenitor of the Adams family in America. The father of Mrs. Polhemus, since 1909, has been professor of chemistry at Stevens Institute of Technology.

The ancestors of Mr. Polhemus include John Ogden, a patentee of Hempstead, L. I., in 1644, and a founder of Northampton, L. I., and Elizabethtowne, N. J., in 1648 and 1664; William Swaine, a deputy to the Massachusetts General Court in 1635; Abraham Polhemus, one of the founders of the Manhattan Company, now the Bank of The Manhattan Company; Isaac Heyer, an early New York merchant, and Hendrick Rycken, progenitor in this country of the Suydam family, who came to New Amsterdam in 1663.

Mr. Polhemus was graduated from Princeton in 1920, from Columbia Law School in 1923 and now is a practicing attorney in New York.

T. J. MARTIN DEAD; A DEALER IN CHINA

Formerly Chairman of Board and President of Davis, Collamore & Co., Ltd.

Timothy James Martin, former chairman of the board of directors and president of Davis Collamore & Co., Ltd., operator of a china and glassware retail store at 7 East Fifty-second Street, died on Sunday at his home, 483 West End Avenue. Mr. Martin had suffered fractures of a hip and an arm in a fall in Florida last February. His age was 88.

Born in Middlebury, Vt., Mr. Martin entered the china and glassware business in New York as a youth, later engaging in it in San Francisco and Chicago. In Chicago he became a junior partner in the retail china and glassware firm of Burley, Tyrell & Co.

In 1895 Mr. Martin came to New York City to become president of Davis Collamore & Co. About eight years ago he relinquished his post as president to become chairman of the board, and about a year ago he retired because of ill health. He belonged to the Union League Club.

Mr. Martin was a widower, his wife having been the former Miss Hester Ross. He is survived by a son, John Ross Martin of Brooklyn, treasurer of the Davis Collamore concern, and by a daughter, Mrs. Clarence W. Wood of New York.

At 10 A. M. tomorrow a requiem mass will be solemnized at the Roman Catholic Church of the Holy Trinity, 213 West Eighty-second Street. Burial will take place in Woodlawn Cemetery.

R. E. Christie Jr., New York Banker, Dies Of Heart Disease on Air Liner Over Ohio

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

TOLEDO, June 25.—Stricken with a heart attack on a westbound airplane, Robert E. Christie Jr., president of the Investment Bankers Association of America and member of the banking firm of Dillon, Read & Co. of New York, died suddenly today before the pilot could make an emergency landing at Archbold, Ohio, forty miles from here.

The plane, a United Air Lines ship on its way to Chicago, was over Archbold at 5:20 P. M. when Mr. Christie became ill. Miss Julia Murphy, stewardess, notified the pilot, Francis Morton, who radioed to the airport here that he was going to land immediately.

Dr. E. A. Murbach of Archbold met the plane, but Mr. Christie had died five minutes after he was stricken. Coroner L. E. Botts attributed death to a heart ailment. R. C. Schaffner of Chicago, a friend and fellow-passenger, made the identification. There was one other passenger.

Mr. Schaffner said the banker had complained of pains in the chest when he boarded the air liner at Cleveland, but felt better when the plane took off. Mr. Schaffner remained here with the body pending word from New York.

With Mr. Christie, Mr. Schaffner, who is president of A. G. Becker & Co., Chicago investment bankers, had attended a directors' meeting of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company in Akron today.

Mr. Christie was to have attended a dinner in Chicago tomorrow given in his honor by Chicago investment bankers.

Mr. Christie, who was 41 years old, was elected president of the Investment Bankers Association of America in 1933 and was credited with being a prime mover in obtaining adherence to a code of fair practices to help safeguard the public interest in investment.

He was elected president of the Bond Club of New York in 1928.

After leaving Princeton in 1914 he served in the army during the World War with the rank of captain and was a secretary to Newton D. Baker. Then he joined Dillon Read, becoming a partner seven years ago.

THURSDAY, MARCH 29,

DIES IN PARK AV. LEAP.

W. H. Gibbs, Son of Educator, Had Suffered Ear Ailment.

William H. Gibbs, son of Mrs. Katherine M. Gibbs, educator, was killed early yesterday morning when he plunged from a window of his apartment on the ninth floor of 280 Park Avenue. He was vice president of the school which bears his mother's name.

A note left by Mr. Gibbs, who was 36 years old, read:

"Please forgive me. Either this or the mad house. Consult those who know." It was addressed to members of his family.

According to Assistant United States Attorney John M. Ryan, the dead man's uncle, who also lives at the Park Avenue address, Mr. Gibbs had been suffering for several years from an ailment which had affected his ears.

Froelick—Merck.

Times

The marriage of Mrs. Josephine Wall Merck of 1,158 Fifth Avenue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Chandler Wall, to Howard Froelick of this city and Princeton, N. J., took place yesterday noon at the home of the bride's parents in Llewellyn Park, West Orange. Only relatives were present at the quiet ceremony.

After returning from a wedding trip the couple will live in New York. Mrs. Froelick's marriage to George W. Merck of West Orange ended in divorce. Her father is a prominent lawyer in New Jersey.

ELIZABETH O. POND BECOMES ENGAGED

F. S. Polhemus and Daughter of Professor of Chemistry at Stevens Will Be Married.

Times 7/31/34

Dr. and Mrs. Francis Jones Pond of Upper Montclair, N. J., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Olds Pond, to Frederick Suydam Polhemus, son of Mrs. James Suydam Polhemus of Newark and the late Mr. Polhemus.

The forebears of both Miss Pond and her fiancé figured prominently in the early history of this country.

Miss Pond is a descendant of Lieutenant Daniel Pond, who, in 1652, was living in Dedham, Mass., and of George Barber and Henry Adams of Medway, Mass., who, in the middle of the seventeenth century, were captain and lieutenant, respectively, in the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Boston. The latter was a son of Henry Adams of Braintree, the progenitor of the Adams family in America. Miss Pond's father, who holds the degrees of Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy from the University of Göttingen, Germany, has been Professor of Chemistry at Stevens Institute of Technology since 1909. He also is a consulting chemist. Miss Pond was graduated from Mount Holyoke College in 1927.

Mr. Polhemus is descended from the Rev. Johannes Theodorus Polhemus, who, in 1654, became the first minister of the Dutch Reformed Churches in Brooklyn and Flatlands. He is a grandson of the Rev. Abraham Polhemus, D. D., who was the first minister of the North Reformed Church of Newark. Mr. Polhemus was graduated from Princeton University in 1920, and three years later from Columbia Law School. He is a member of the Ivy Club of Princeton, Delta Psi fraternity, St. Nicholas and Holland Societies, and the University and Union Clubs of New York.
